

Precision Cotton Workshops

TENTATIVE PROGRAM

DATE: November 13, 2008

TIME: 8:30 am – noon

PLACE: Harrah's Casino & Resort, Tunica, MS

7:00 AM – 8:30 AM REGISTRATION & CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

NOTE: Participants Must Choose Either Workshop #1 or Workshop #2

WORKSHOP #1 - AGENDA

Getting Started in Precision Fertility (3 hours) 8:30 AM – noon

- ◆ Hands-on Use of GPS/PocketPC Units -- includes instruction and outside demonstrations on how to take soil samples; map field boundaries; transfer data; generate application maps and more!

Instructors: Will Henderson, Clemson; Shannon Norwood & Amy Winstead, Auburn; and Dana Sullivan, USDA-ARS, Tifton, GA.

WORKSHOP #2 - AGENDA

A. Transitioning to Zone Management (1.5 hours) 8:30 – 10:00 AM

- ◆ How to Implement Zone Management
- ◆ Discussion of USDA's Zone Analyst
- ◆ Reduce Samples without Loss of Accuracy

Instructors: Mike Bushermohle, University of Tennessee; Mike Cox, Mississippi State; Brenda Ortiz, University of Georgia; Jeff Willers, USDA-ARS, Mississippi State, MS; Randy Taylor, Oklahoma State

B. Sensor-based Nitrogen Management (1.5 hours) 10:30 AM – Noon

- ◆ Making Field Level Recommendations from a Hand-held Unit
- ◆ Hands-on use of the GreenSeeker[®] Sensor
- ◆ Demonstration of a Crop Circle[™] Sensor

Instructors: Brian Arnall, Oklahoma State; Brenda Tubana, Louisiana State; Philip Allen, University of Tennessee; Earl Vories, USDA-ARS, Portageville, MO

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM LUNCH

NOTE: Check the Crop Management Seminar page at www.cottoninc.com for program updates

REGISTRATION: Register for the PRECISION COTTON WORKSHOPS in the space provided on the CROP MANAGEMENT SEMINAR registration form.
REGISTER EARLY, SPACE IS LIMITED.

REMINDER: You must choose only ONE of the workshops listed!